

Health and Safety Policy Statement

Our Commitment

LDA Group Limited is committed to ensuring the Health and Safety of all stakeholders affected by its activities, recognising that effective management, leadership, engagement and empowerment by developing the appropriate behaviours to prevent accidents and ill health from our operations in an essential part of a successful business.

Our Policy

LDA Group Limited will:

- Comply with all relevant legislation, approved codes of practice and government guidance concerning Health and Safety matters
- Use a systematic approach to identify and assess Health and Safety risks and apply controls to prevent injury or ill health
- Provide the information, supervision and training necessary for employees and contractors to undertake work competently and safely, realising the highest standards of Health and Safety within the construction and related industries
- Continually improve its Health and Safety by setting smart objectives and targets
- Protect and promote employee wellbeing and healthy living to create a healthier workplace and workforce
- Provide effective employee and contractor consultation and participation in health and safety activities and decisions
- Monitor, audit and review the effectiveness of this policy and improve where necessary

Our Key Responsibilities

LDA Group Limited Board is accountable for Health and Safety matters. The Managing Director is responsible for the implementation of this policy across all areas of control.

All employees and contractors have a legal duty to take reasonable care of their own Health and Safety and that of all others that may be affected by their work.

Our Organisation

The Managing Director is responsible for providing the systems that enable the organisation to implement the requirements of this policy.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "D Redhead".

David Redhead
Managing Director
August 2022